A Letter From Our New School Superintendent

Dear Lyle Students, Staff, Parents and Community Members,

I'm so very excited to join Lyle Community Schools as your next Superintendent! I was brought up in a family of educators, and I've devoted four decades of my life to teaching and serving in school administration. My experiences include being a classroom teacher, reading specialist, principal, executive director of curriculum, instruction and assessment, assistant superintendent, and a consultant to district teams working to improve instructional practices and culture.

These diverse and demanding roles have contributed to my perspective and appreciation for the opportunity of being the Lyle Superintendent. This is, without a doubt, an enormous responsibility. But I am well-prepared to lead this staff -- with the support of parents, community and school board -- to meet the high expectations that the community expects and our students deserve.

My guiding principle as your Superintendent is based on the belief that every child can and will attain the education and skills necessary to achieve their dreams of a meaningful and bright future. I look forward to working collaboratively with our parents, students, staff and community to continue to make Lyle a safe, caring and inspiring place for our students to learn.

It has been my pleasure during the last few weeks to spend time in the school and community. I am excited to find a positive culture that promotes student learning. The gains made to date are impressive. Our school must continue to be a place where students are engaged, challenged to meet the standards necessary for college and/or a career, and where fun is definitely encouraged. Students must be given opportunities to develop productive and sustaining relationships and to be encouraged to be productive citizens.

I am excited about the work ahead of us in Lyle. Together we will continue to ensure our students receive the highest quality education possible. If I can be of any assistance to you, please feel free to contact me at 509-365-2191 or email me at avarkados@lyleschools.org.

Sincerely,
Dr. Ann Varkados

New School Board Member

The board also appointed Traci Waddington to the School Board to fill Phil William's seat.

Here is a photo of Traci taking the oath of office at the board meeting Tuesday evening, August 21. Traci is the mom of an 8th grader and lives in Dallesport. She'll fill out the remainder of what remains of Phil's term of office, which ends December 31, 2019.

Book Report

By Judy Bane

"Prairie Fires; The American Dreams of Laura Ingalls Wilder" by Caroline Fraser

This is a detailed bio of Laura Ingalls Wilder that documents her life and in particular, the writing of her books. Wilder had one child, Rose Wilder Lane and their relationship was not always a smooth one. Yet they were close, writing letters back and forth when Rose was not actually living with her parents on Rocky Ridge Farm in Missouri, where the Wilders ended up after tough times drove them from the Dakota prairies where they met and married.

The author has done extensive research and faithfully follows Wilder as she works hard on the farm and later in life, writes the books that eventually made her famous. Her daughter Rose was a journalist and writer and helped her mother with the project, writing letters with advice, doing extensive editing and putting her mother in contact with people in the publishing world. Wilder and Rose were very different in their outlook on life and clashed on many things but always supported each other in their endeavors.

Particularly fascinating to me were the political times of Wilders adulthood, when FDR and the New Deal came onto our political landscape. The parallels with our current times are startling.

It took me a while to get through this book, there is a lot of information but I found it all engrossing and thoroughly enjoyed every bit of it.

Travel and write with Laura of the "Little House On the Prairie" books. It's an eye opening trip.

Community Council Corner

By Pj Sisseck

Community Council Report for

Meeting 8 August, 2018

Don McDermott, Chairman of the Dallesport-Murdock Community Council, spoke about the issue of coal train safety. Brake sensors and derailment sensors are now available, but railway companies are reluctant to invest in them. A gamble is being taken, since if a damaging derailment were to happen, the lawsuits could run into the millions of dollars.

Surfactants are being sprayed over loads of coal, which does reduce blow-off. But little is being done to address the debris working through cracks in the bottoms of the cars. Coal pieces, everything from fine particles to significant chunks, are filtering out along the tracks. Rainwater and snow melt washes this material down to the nearest body of water – in our area, that would be the Columbia River. The Riverkeeper is working on a lawsuit over this issue.

Several major victories for the public have been accomplished, however. Some track improvements have been completed near the Lyle tunnel. A plan to put in double tracks near Mosier, Oregon was defeated, with cooperation of local Native American Tribes, Wasco County Commissioners, concerned citizens, and several organizations voicing environmental issues. A proposed coal shipping terminal for the Longview area was also defeated, so we will not have the increase in coal train traffic that would have resulted had the facility been constructed. There are now fewer trains, running more slowly, reducing the potential for wrecks.

The Bad News: Fire danger remains high. The Good News: Our water resources are holding out. Please keep your own area green, and clear of combustibles.

September's Meeting will include information on Code Compliance, especially addressing the matter of junk cars, garbage, and vermin. Klickitat County can enforce the laws, but need information from the general public. The process is complaint-driven, but those complaints need to be done the proper way. Come on down to the Community Center at 7 PM 13 September, and learn how you, too, can improve our living conditions!

Fly Under the Special Rule for Model Aircraft

This is an advisory to the folks that live near the Columbia Gorge Regional Airport. I realize flying remote controlled aircraft is fun, but when you fly near an airport it creates a conflict with general aviation aircraft and fire fighting aircraft operating out of the airport. We recently had an incident that temporarily shut down fire fighting operation until the remote aircraft was on the ground. If you want to fly remote aircraft, please research the rules and regulations for safety purposes so that it is enjoyable and fun for you.

Darren Lacock

To fly under the Special Rule for Model Aircraft you must:

1. Fly for hobby or recreation ONLY
2. Register your model aircraft
3. Fly within visual line-of-sight
4. Follow community-based safety guidelines and fly within the programming of a nationwide community-based organization
5. Fly a drone under 55 lbs. unless certified by a community-based organization
6. Never fly near other aircraft
7. Notify the airport and air traffic control tower prior to flying within 5 miles of an airport*
8. Never fly near emergency response efforts

For more information about what you can do with a model aircraft, please read FAA Advisory Circular 91-57A (PDF) or read the Interpretation of the Special Rule for Model Aircraft (PDF).

If you do not meet these requirements, you must fly under the FAA's small UAS Rule (part 107).

*The person flying the model aircraft is responsible for contacting the airport directly. Many phone numbers for airports are available here: https://www.faa.gov/air_traffic/flight_info/aeronav/aero_data/Airport_Data/

Many airports have processes for people who fly near their airport, and the model aircraft operator can talk with them directly about how to meet this rule.

Registration Requirements

The FAA requires you to register as a "modeler" and mark your model aircraft with your registration number in case it is lost or stolen.

Registration costs $5 and is valid for 3 years.

More information about the registration process is available through UAS Registration.

Illegal Drones and Fires

An illegal drone flying over the Terwilliger Fire on Sunday, August 26, grounded firefighting aircraft and made it more difficult to battle the now 5,400 acre blaze.

The drone was detected over the wildfire east of Eugene and around Cougar Reservoir during the afternoon, officials said.

"Air operations immediately stopped working on fire suppression efforts after the 'drone' was discovered over the fire area," fire teams said in a report Sunday.

"(Drones) are unsafe and pose a significant risk to our firefighters. Helicopters had been providing support to firefighters on the ground by dropping water on spot fires along the fire perimeter."

Fire teams notified the Lane County Sheriff's Office and "every effort is being made to catch the person" who was operating the drone, fire spokeswoman Sharma Chavez said.

The fine for operating a drone in a temporary flight restriction area — such as a wildfire — is up to $27,500.
