Egg Hunt

By Mildred E. Lykens

Squeals of excitement pierced the air and could be heard down the block as children gathered for the Lion's Club Easter Egg Hunt Saturday at the Lyle Park. Cars were lined up along the perimeter of the park and children from ages 10 and below waited impatiently for the signal to race out and gather the eggs, filled with goodies or a message stating they had won a prize to be collected at the pavilion. Wrapped candies were also lying around hidden in the blades of grass as the kids raced to find them. Parents were also racing...after their young ones in order to catch the moment with their cameras. Once again the Lyle Lions did a great job by creating memories for families in filling the Easter baskets and satisfying the children's sweet tooth.

Book Report

By Judy Bane

"The Book Artist" by Mark Pryor

Hugo Marston, head of security for the U.S. Embassy in Paris, puts his life in danger when he investigates the murder of a celebrated artist, all the while fending off an assassin looking to settle an old score against him. Hugo Marston accompanies his boss, US Ambassador J. Bradford Taylor, to the first night of an art exhibition in Montmartre, Paris. Hugo is less than happy about going until he finds out that the sculptures on display are made from his favorite medium: books. Soon after the champagne starts to flow and the canapes are served, the night takes a deadly turn when one of the guests is found murdered. Hugo lingers at the scene and offers his profiling expertise to help solve the crime, but the detective in charge quickly jumps to his own conclusions. He makes an arrest, but it's someone that Hugo is certain is innocent. Meanwhile, his best friend, Tom Green, has disappeared to Amsterdam, hunting an enemy from their past, an enemy who gets the upper hand on Tom, and who then sets his sights on Hugo. With an innocent person behind bars, a murder to solve, and his own life in danger, Hugo knows he has no time to waste as one killer tries to slip away, and another gets closer and closer.

Such a good story! This is the first Hugo Marston book I've read and I am definitely going to order all the others and get caught up on this intriguing character and his highly entertaining adventures. You won't be sorry for reading these books.

Volunteer

Have you volunteered at the school this year? It may have been just a little thing -- but little things matter! If so, check your email and your child's backpack for a special invitation. If you don't find the invitation there, message us or email deb.stenberg@lyleschools.org.

Scholarships

Parents, If your graduating senior hasn't been applying for scholarships, please encourage them to do so this month.

We have put applications to several local scholarships on our webpage and there are others worth checking out there too. Go to www.lyleschools.org, and in the drop down under Lyle Secondary, you'll see Life After High School. Make sure they check out links to some of the scholarship search sites - "GEAR Up" is an excellent site. Counselor Julie Larson notes that scholarships are also posted on the bulletin board by the cafeteria, and there are hard copies of the scholarships forms in the hanging files outside of John Bister's room. Seniors should also request a letter of recommendation (by email) from at least one staff person. They should include a resume or brief bio to help with the letter of recommendation, along with the name of the scholarship they are applying for, and its due date.

Community Council Corner

By Caleb Hotchkiss

The Dallesport-Murdock Community Council met on April 11th, 2019.

The Yakama Nation Housing Authority (YNHA) speakers, Executive Director Ted Strong, and Secretary-Treasurer Randy Settler brought out a larger than normal crowd to the meeting this month with 44 people in attendance including Sheriff Bob Songer, and Lyle School District Superintendent Dr. Ann Varkados. Also in attendance from the YNHA were Preston Harrison, David Northover, Kelly Coons, and Ione Jones. The YNHA representatives spoke about tradition, principles and history that guide their approach to developing the planned 66 housing-units between 3rd Avenue and Sunridge Avenue, directly west of Dallesport Road. The speakers talked about hopes for additional amenities including a tribal police substation, a community center, a maintenance center, health and administrative offices, and contributing to local economic development and schools. The community challenged the YNHA to commit to adding these amenities and questioned if there was enough land to accommodate. Potential problems seen in other YNHA developments such as drug use and lack of maintenance were raised by community members in attendance. The YNHA speakers discussed controls such as tenant agreements that are intended to mitigate these problems. Additional discussion surrounded tax credits, and how local and tribal law enforcement are to work to be coordinated.

Marty Hudson of the Klickitat County Weed Control Board Office spoke about control of invasive plants. He highlighted puncture vine, poison hemlock, skeleton weed outlining basic control measures for each. Mr. Hudson also mentioned invasive plants, butterfly bush, flowering rush and purple loosestrife.

Jim Smith, General Manager, Klickitat County PUD, spoke about the waste water system and electrical power systems. He noted the waste water system is at 50% capacity with 420 homes. Currently the rate is $45 per month, but will increase 3% to $46.12 in 2019. Mr. Smith put this rate in context, showing it is a lower rate than the wastewater rate in most surrounding communities. Prompted by a community member, Mr. Smith commented on wastewater fees being charged per household, rather than based on usage primarily since measurement of wastewater disposal is difficult. He noted the connection charge for new service is $3,894. Regarding the electrical power system, Mr. Smith recently proposed a 1.5% increase in rates for 2019 to keep the approximately $50M expense and $50M income in balance. He mentioned that 85% of power is purchased from Bonneville Power Administration. Mr. Smith briefly discussed generating power and natural gas from landfill emissions, and the impact on rates. Mr. Smith noted the electrical connection fee was $25, (the cost to transfer existing service under a new person's name) but could be more if additional infrastructure needs to be built for that particular installation.

The Council also discussed the proposed sale of the Dallesport School to Sagetech Corporation. A pending appraisal and another public hearing are to take place before the Lyle School District can sell the property.

The next meeting of the Dallesport-Murdock Community Council is May 9th, 7:00 PM, at the Community Center on 6th Ave.

ATTENTION: Residents INDEPENDENT INCOME SURVEY

Dear Resident:

The Dallesport Water District (District) would like to apply for funding to explore options for improvements and upgrades to the District drinking water system. Potential upgrades include drinking water service extensions to your area. This project will require funding and design and construction may follow. We are investigating the most cost effective way to construct the improvements to the drinking water system.

As part of the funding application process, we have contracted with an impartial third party to perform a focused household income survey of customers in areas that may choose to be connected to our water system. This income survey will be used by funding agencies to determine the District's eligibility for grants or other optimal funding alternatives.

The Dallesport Water District has requested that the Rural Community Assistance Corporation (RCAC), conduct the survey. An income survey letter and form will be mailed to you within the next few days from RCAC. We urge you to complete the short survey form and return it to RCAC in the postage-paid envelope that will be included. The District needs a high response rate for the survey to be considered valid. No identifying information will be provided to the funding agency or representatives of the District. Responses to this survey are strictly confidential.

We need your assistance to obtain the best possible funding from federal and state agencies. Please complete and return the survey form as soon as possible. Thank you!

Sincerely,
Lane Goodenough

School Board Hears Community Viewpoints on Building Sale

A public hearing hosted by the Lyle School District Board of Directors Wednesday, April 10, produced valuable feedback regarding the potential sale of the old Dallesport School to the Sagetech Corporation.

Sagetech, a manufacturer that makes parts for the drone industry, has leased the property since February of 2018, and formally submitted a request to purchase it in February, 2019. While the district scheduled the public hearing to meet the legal requirements for disposition of public property, the board has made clear that it has not yet made a decision regarding the sale.

Attendees at the hearing, which was held in the Dallesport Community Center, were predominantly Dallesport residents, although some from Lyle also attended. In addition to Superintendent Ann Varkados, Ed.D., Principal Lori Smith and the full school board, Sagetech Chief Operating Officer Tom Furey was present. At the outset of the meeting, Superintendent Varkados provided a brief history of the Dallesport property and Furey provided background and information from the company's perspective.

Although the hearing was designed to provide individuals an opportunity to speak individually, the audience engaged in conversation throughout the meeting.

Several expressed support for the sale of the property, if the money was spent wisely to expand or enhance the Lyle campus, while others expressed skepticism regarding whether the Lyle campus had sufficient room to expand. Lyle resident Oren Johnson shared that the Lyle campus had benefited from several donations of property by his family in previous decades and has substantial room to grow.

Some attendees, including Board Chairperson Barbara Mills, reported serving on a community committee in the mid-1990s when the board was trying to pass a bond measure in order to either build a new Dallesport building or expand the Lyle School. Although the committee recommended unifying the campus at that time, based on enrollment and economics, the Dallesport community made clear it was unwilling to support a bond measure unless a Dallesport building was included.

At least one attendee expressed concern that the same sentiment could still doom future Lyle levy and bond measures if the Dallesport building was sold. Another concern was raised around the potential increase in population, particularly in the Dallesport community.

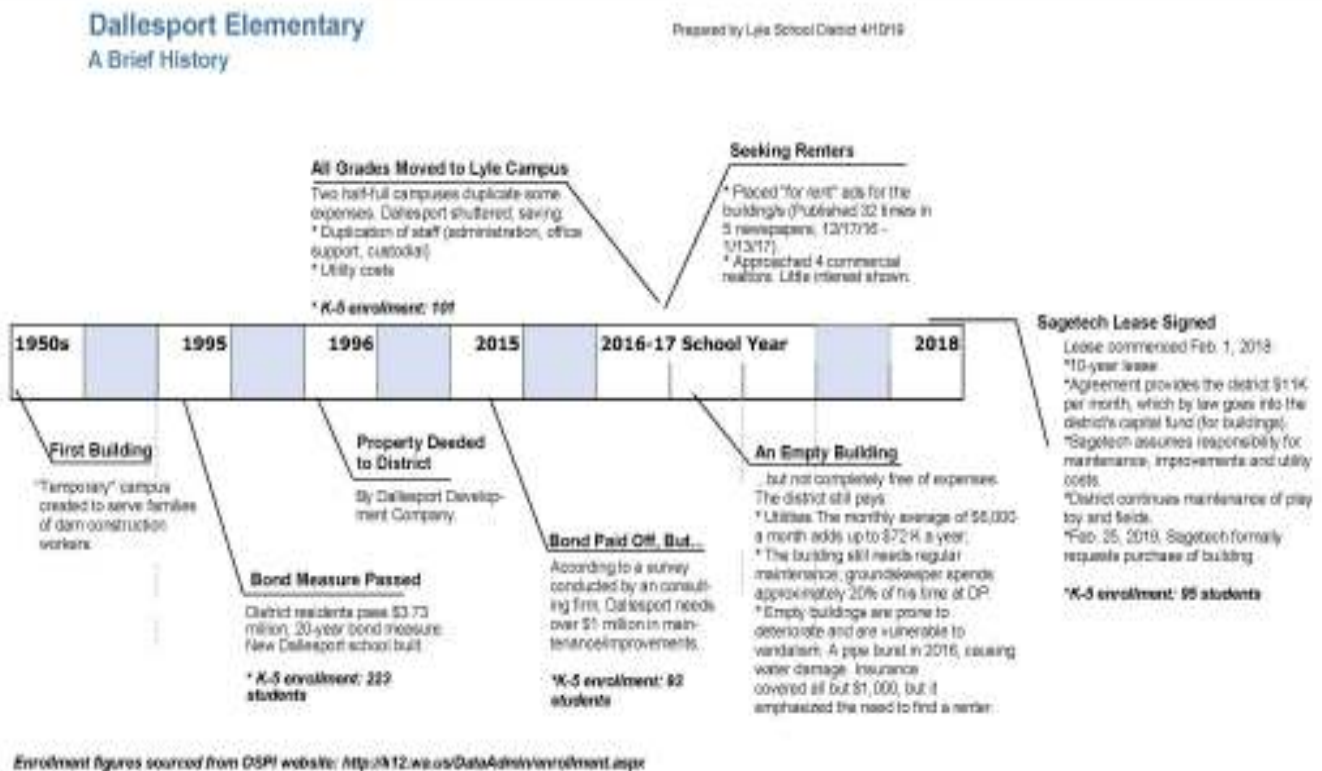

The board concluded the meeting after all attendees had had an opportunity to speak. They promised those in attendance that questions raised during the meeting would be publicly answered following research on some of the topics, in order to ensure accurate information is provided.

The report will be shared out on the district webpage, www.lyleschools.org, and the community will be notified when it's available. Those who attended and provided contact information will be notified by mail or email, and the district will use Facebook and community newsletters to notify the larger community.

Anyone who would like to receive an email notification when it's available can let us know at Info@lyleschools.org. If you were unable to attend the meeting, you are also welcome to submit testimony via email at the same address.

Questions posed at Dallesport School Board hearing on April 10 will be posted, along with the district's responses, on the district website, www.lyleschools.org, under "Recent News" by May 1st. Those who attended the meeting and provided contact information will receive notification; if a mailing address is all that was provided, the Q&A sheet will be mailed to them.
