Firing Range Sees Increasing Numbers

by Jacob Bertram The Enterprise

The Klickitat County Firearms Training Facility has seen an increase in visitors since its opening in June.

Jeff Hunter, assistant public works director for Klickitat County said there were over 30 visitors to the facility during its weekly hours from Sept. 7 to Sept. 9. That is nearly twice the number of visitors to the facility that they normally see, according to Hunter.

The increase of visitors may be attributable to the beginning of hunting season, which in Washington state, begins mid-September.

Tim Sipe, Chief Range Safety Officer for the facility, says visitors have come from places like Vancouver and across state lines to sight in at the firing range. He cited a lack of public ranges in Klickitat County and further abroad as one reason people might be showing up more often.

Sipe said that one of the facility's highest priorities is providing a safe place for people to sight in. He said the purpose of the facility is to deter the public from practicing in the woods and other areas where practicing might be deemed unsafe.

The range features 10 rifle benches and 5 pistol bays. Hunter says the facility, which offers targets up to 100 yards away from the firing area, is only partially complete. To the left of the 100-yard range lies the partially completed ground work for a much larger, 300-yard range.

"It's a work in progress," Hunter said. There are also plans in place for a shotgun range, an archery range and a separate range intended for use by law enforcement officers.

"It would be nice to do a little more," said Hunter.

"Most of the dirt work is done," Hunter said about the 300-yard range, but he also acknowledged that it will take more money and labor to finish the "dirt work," the colloquial term for the baffling, which are the mounds that the targets lie on, and the berms, which barricade projectiles from escaping the facility.

The firing range is an "open-air" range, meaning the range itself is outdoors, protected by the berms on the perimeter, but the facility that houses the rifle benches and pistols bays are covered, allowing visitors the comfort of being protected from weather elements that might impede their practice.

Responding to why the facility is not under construction, Hunter said that "it's a matter of timing," citing higher priorities for the county's public works department. He said they are not currently pursuing funding to continue adding on new components to the facility, which sits on a 90-acre lot off U.S. Route 197, close to the junction with State Route 14 outside Dallesport, Wash.

Sipe said one of the major issues is a lack of awareness of the facility. There is no sign directing traffic to the facility, which he says another priority of the range is placing a sign and raising awareness. He said people thought that only the sheriff would have access, which is a misconception, according to Sipe. He says that the range is fully public, which means visitors can practice without having to sign up for a membership.

Safety is another priority, according to Sipe. The range officials prohibit 50-caliber ammunition and only slugs can be used with shotguns. Fully automatic firearms can only be used by Law Enforcement officers, whom Hunter says use the range on off days. Safety glasses and ear plugs are necessary to be allowed into the range, among many other rules laid out on the county's website.

Sipe says the volunteers who officiate the facility offer tips on sighting-in, but more formal classes and training are in the plans to be offered at the facility, including training on becoming a range safety officer.

For now, officials are waiting to see how attendance will be measured throughout the hunting season and beyond before entering the next phase of construction on the facility.

The facility is open Friday and Saturday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m., or 30 minutes to sunset if that will come first and on Sunday from 12 p.m. to 6 p.m., or 30 minutes to sunset if it comes first, and costs $15 for two hours of range time.

Lyle/Dallesport News

By Mildred E. Lykens

Lyle, Dallesport area residents wish Elma Brashers a very Happy 102nd Birthday on September 20th. When asked about her secret to longevity she said she trusted in the Lord and that He had blessed her with a great daughter-in-law (Muriel Krusow) who she lives with (in Dallesport) and takes very good care of her.

She enjoys, and looks forward to, going to the Senior Lunches in Lyle on Tuesdays and that they had celebrated her birthday that week

It is with a heavy heart that I have to report the passing of two of our local residents last week. John Banks of Dallesport, a member of the Sundowners RV Club passed away while traveling on his vacation back east. And Lyle's own Jack Bryan lost his daughter Lisa Bryan Griffith to an automobile accident near her home in Woodlawn.

Community Council Corner

By Angie Jenkins

The Dallesport-Murdock Community Council met on September 12, 2019 at the Dallesport Community Center.

Klickitat County Sheriff's Department will have a K-9 soon! The county is getting a dog very soon that will be trained to work with narcotics, patrol, and search and rescue. Officer Gavin Marbel has been a driving force towards accomplishing this addition. A group of volunteers was established and they have been actively fundraising with businesses and citizens. Through donations, grants, etc. over $20,000 has been raised.

Financial assistance has been donated by so many in the community, but services have also been provided by many. For example this includes making necessary modifications to the patrol vehicle, a service vest, vet services, etc. The Council agreed to donate $500 towards the K-9 program. Recently a pig was raffled off at the county fair and raised about $2,000! Thanks to everyone!

Officer Marbel will be going to Centralia in October to meet the dog and begin training. Both will be attending patrol academy until December. Next spring or summer they will attend narcotics search training. A 10 year plan has been created to help create this program but also continue it.

Dallesport has had recent problems regarding loose dogs in town. When the county receives a vicious dog call they respond immediately and evaluate the situation. The pet owners are located and served with a letter of explanation regarding the issue. The owner then has 15 days to request a hearing for the incident. If the owner wishes to keep the dog very strict requirements could be imposed. This would include suitable fencing or containment of the dog, posting dangerous dog warning signs on the property, possibly a bond on the animal. Two loose dogs recently killed cats, and the incidents were video taped. This has caused great concern for many community residents.

The Community Garden group will hold another meeting soon, date to follow. We are continuing to improve community interest and involvement. Please contact Bill Adams at wva063@gmail.com or myself at angiejenkins111@yahoo.com if you are interested in helping out or have any questions.

The next meeting of the Dallesport-Murdock Community Council is Thursday October 10th. at 7:00 PM, at the Community Center on 6th Avenue.

Upcoming Council Elections

Each year, 3 positions on the 9-person community council are up for election. This year WJ "Bill" Morris, David McNeal, and Sally Swing have their terms expiring. All have expressed an interest in running for re-election. The elections are held prior to the November Council meeting. Intent to run must be submitted to the Council on or before the October meeting. Write-ins are accepted on Election Day. Eligibility for the council include being a resident, real estate leaseholder and/or property owner living in the Dallesport/Murdock community for at least 6 months and be a registered voter in good standing in the community. If you are interested, look for the notice and form in the post office or contact Kim McCartney at kmccartney@charter.net or 509-594-6195 to register your desire to be on the council.

Dallesport Water District News

The Dallesport Water District has hired Chelsea Wooderson to fill the part time Clerk position on August 12, 2019. Chelsea's office hours are 8-1, Monday through Thursday. Chelsea Wooderson brings 10 years of administration experience and business ownership experience to the Dallesport Water District. Also, the Dallesport Water District has hired Scott Dixon as Dallesport Water District Manager on August 16, 2019. Scott Dixon brings 38 years of Washington potable water experience to the Dallesport Water District.

On June 19, 2019 the Washington Department of Health made a surprise inspection visit to the Dallesport Water District. This inspection visit left the Dallesport Water District with a checklist of items that were deemed urgent and immediate. Scott, Austin, and Chelsea have successfully completed the Washington Department of Health onsite inspection checklist in record time. The number one item on the checklist was the A street well, maintenance and operations. All work to correct the water system to meet Washington Department of Health rules and regulations was done by Dallesport Water District employees at minimal cost to the District. The Dallesport Water District is now 100% in compliance with the Washington Department of Health. As part of routine maintenance, you may have noticed that all fire hydrants in Dallesport have been painted, thank you Scott and Austin.

Scott, Austin, and Chelsea have completed the state mandated Cross-Connection Program that has been approved by the Dallesport Water District Board of Commissioners. Starting this fall the new team at Dallesport Water District plans on implementing the program and have identified several customers who have irrigation systems that may need backflow devices installed. Others that have devices may need to start being tested. The Dallesport Water District will work with you to find the most cost-efficient way to get these installations completed.

Behind the scenes maintenance of the Dallesport Water District filtration system has taken place and is ongoing.

Dallesport Water District was informed by Klickitat County planning on September 25, 2019 that the Maley/Wallace subdivision South of the Post Office is about to receive final approval.

The Dallesport Water District has completed its tri annual Washington State auditor office's audit on 9/26/2019.

If you have any questions regarding your water system, please feel free to contact the District.

Be A Responsible Pet Owner

The responsibility for properly training and controlling a dog rests with the owner. The most dangerous dogs are those that fall victims to human shortcomings such as poor training, irresponsible ownership and breeding practices that foster viciousness or neglect and abuse.

Be sure that your pets are properly identified (i.e., tags, microchips, or tattoos) and that their licensing and shots are up to date.

Have your dog spayed or neutered. Studies show that dogs are three times more likely to bite if they are NOT neutered.

Socialize your dog so that it knows how to act with other people and animals.

Play non-aggressive games with your dog, such as "go fetch." Playing aggressive games like "tug-of-war" can encourage inappropriate behavior.

Keep your dog on your own property and always on a leash when walking your dog.

It is your responsibility to find ways to keep your dog from escaping your yard. Proper fencing or dog runs should be taken into account before acquiring your pet.

The dog owner is liable if an injury occurred because the dog owner was unreasonably careless (negligent) in controlling the dog. If you cannot afford to be a responsible pet owner then don't have one.

The dog owner is automatically liable for any injury or property damage the dog causes, even without provocation.

A single lawsuit—even if won—can end up costing hundreds of thousands of dollars. Sadly it could also cost the life of your pet if Animal Control or the Sheriff's Office deems that your pet is too dangerous and should be put down.

Loving and protecting your pet is showing that you are a responsible pet owner.

Lyle Condo Project

More news about the project for the 30 condominium project...The Planning Department would like to clarify a couple things about it and sent out this statement: "The Board of Adjustment meeting will be held on November 4, 2019 at 7pm in the County Commissioners Meeting room in the courthouse. Written comments will be received up to and at that meeting. If possible, it would be nice for citizens to email their comments to the Klickitat County Planning Department at Planning@klickitatcounty.org The sooner we get comments, the better, as it is always nice to get them to the board members in advance of the meeting. That way they have time to read and review the comments prior to the meeting. Again, we will take written testimony at the meeting as well. If anyone has questions, they can call the Planning Dept at 509 773-5703, or 800 764 7239, or email us." If you have opinions, now's the time to voice them.

The first lightweight nylon backpacks appeared around 1967, designed by JanSport and Gerry Outdoors for hikers and backpackers. But college students soon started to adopt them. By the 1980s, backpack companies were making them specifically for textbooks.

The packs filtered down through the grades and around the world, replacing the book straps, satchels and school bags of earlier eras as an indelible part of a student's identity.
